Hymn Time:

"Spirit of God Descend Upon My Heart"
George Croly (1780-1860)

George was born in Dublin, Ireland. He was ordained in 1804 and became an Anglican minister. After going through a difficult experience at a church in Ireland, George moved to London in 1810. For the next 25 years he was involved in literature, writing poems, novels, and theological works. In 1835 George once again tried the ministry. He opened a church in the slums of London that had been closed for over 100 years. George was known as a fundamentalist in theology, a fierce conservative in politics, and intensely opposed to all forms of liberalism.

If Jesus had never sent the Holy Spirit to indwell and guide us, our relationship with God would be incomplete. Take time this morning or this week to pray the first verse of this hymn. Ask God to change the focus of your life from things temporal to things spiritual.

The Lord's Prayer:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
