Hymn Time:

"His Eye is on the Sparrow"
Civilla Martin (1869-1948)

Civilla Martin tells of a visit in 1904 to a bedridden Christian friend in Elmira, New York. Civilla asked the woman if she ever got discouraged because of her physical condition. Her friend responded quickly: "How can I be discouraged when my heavenly Father watches over each little sparrow and I know He loves and care for me." Within just a few minutes Civilla completed the writing of her new text, which has since been a source of much encouragement to many of God's people.

It is interesting that our Lord chose the most common of all birds, sparrows of little value, to teach a profound truth: In God's eyes no one is insignificant. He is vitally concerned with all the details of our lives. Notice also that the Bible uses another bird to teach this inspiring truth: Those who hope in the Lord will soar on wings like eagles" (Isa. 40:31). With an awareness of God's concern for our lives and the promise of His enabling power to live victoriously, why should we be afraid?

About the Message:

"Jesus' parables reveal to us spiritual truths in a way we can understand. In today's parable of the Lost Sheep, we get another glimpse at the heart of our Heavenly Father and his heart for the one who strays away from the fold."

The Lord's Prayer:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
