"How Firm a Foundation"
From Rippon's Selection of Hymns (1787)

The authorship of this text has always been a mystery. Its first appearance was in 1787 in Selection of Hymns, published by Dr. John Rippon. John was the pastor of Carter's Lane Baptist Church in London. He was one of the most popular and influential ministers of his time.

A believer's stability in this life, as well as his confidence for eternity, rests solely on the written promises of God's Word. The direction of the Living God for our lives is very definite. It is found in a firm foundation, the written revelation: "Thus saith the Lord".

Plant your feet firmly on the "Thus saith the Lords" and live life confidently in that strength.

Joanne DiBlasi 215-862-9832

About the Message:

In one word, what would you say you/others most want from life? How do you/others pursue it? How often and how much is it yours? Today's time-tested wisdom from Psalm 1 addresses what people most desire. It also reveals God's gracious, abundant provision of it, and what's more, how life-giving and readily accessible it is.

The Lord's Prayer:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
