"All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name"
Edward Perronet (1726-1792)

Edward Perronet came from a family of distinguished French Huguenots (the Protestant Reformed Church of France) who had fled to Switzerland and then England to escape religious persecution. Edward was ordained to the ministry of the Anglican Church, but was always more sympathetic to the evangelical movement led by John and Charles Wesley. Soon Edward left the state church to join the Wesley's in their evangelistic endeavors. Although he wrote a number of other hymns, this is the only one for which he will be remembered.

We can be thankful that God moved Edward to write this stirring hymn that reminds us so forcibly that the angels in heaven and ransomed souls from "every kindred, every tribe" on earth are worshipping with us even now. And one day we will all join together in singing "the everlasting song" when Christ is crowned "Lord of all".
