"His Eye is on the Sparrow"
Civilla Martin (1869-1948)

Civilla Martin tells of a visit in 1904 to a bedridden Christian friend in Elmira, New York. Civilla asked the woman if she ever got discouraged because of her physical condition. Her friend responded quickly: "How can I be discouraged when my heavenly Father watches over each little sparrow and I know He loves and care for me." Within just a few minutes Civilla completed the writing of her new text, which has since been a source of much encouragement to many of God's people.

It is interesting that our Lord chose the most common of all birds, sparrows of little value, to teach a profound truth: In God's eyes no one is insignificant. He is vitally concerned with all the details of our lives. Notice also that the Bible uses another bird to teach this inspiring truth: Those who hope in the Lord will soar on wings like eagles" (Isa. 40:31). With an awareness of God's concern for our lives and the promise of His enabling power to live victoriously, why should we be afraid?
