Hymn Time:

"Jesus Loves Me"
(Anna Warner 1827-1915)

The hymn "Jesus Loves Me" is an international favorite among children, written in 1859. It has been taught and sung in many tongues by missionaries the world over. The author, Anna Warner, wrote many hymns for her Bible Class at West Point, and when she died a military funeral was held in her honor by the cadets whom she loved and taught for many years.

The composer of this hymn, William Bradbury, developed the "Sunday-School song" form, which was a single ballad style verse with a refrain. It may be said that this was a true American contribution to hymnody.

About the Message:

Sometimes we don't realize how a small and simple gesture of kindness on our part can make a difference in someone's life. Not everything in our lives has to be complicated. There's an old saying: "Keep it Simple." Which are words to help us live by.

The Lord's Prayer:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
