Hymn Time:

"Holy, Holy, Holy! Lord God Almighty"
Reginald Heber (1783-1826)

This majestic text was written over 175 years ago by an Anglican minister, Reginald Heber. It is still one of the hymns most frequently used in our corporate worship.

Reginald was a highly respected minister, writer and church leader. He served for a time as the Bishop of Calcutta in India. His early death at the age of 43 was widely mourned throughout the Christian world. One year after his death, a collection of 57 of his hymns was published by his widow and many friends as a tribute to his memory and faithful ministry. It is from that collection of 1827 that this morning's hymn was taken.

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
