"America the Beautiful"
Katherine Lee Bates (1859-1929)

Katherine was a teacher and head of the English department at Wellesley College in Massachusetts. The first draft of "America the Beautiful" was hastily jotted in a notebook in 1893 while Katherine was teaching summer school in Colorado Springs. Later she remembered, "One day some of the teachers and I decided to go on a trip to 14,000 foot Pikes Peak. We hired a prairie wagon. Near the top we had to leave the wagon and go the rest of the way on mules. I was very tired. But when I saw the view, I felt great joy. All the wonder of America seemed displayed there, with the sea-like expanse."

The words to her famous poem first appeared in The Congregationalist, a weekly journal, in 1895. The poem reached a wider audience when it was printed in the Boston Evening Transcript in 1904. There are elementary schools named in her honor in both Wellesley, Massachusetts and Colorado Springs, Colorado.

This national hymn does more than inspire us to praise our great nation. It also encourages us to pray for it. Each stanza is completed with an earnest plea for God's grace, God's healing, and His refining until we as a people achieve true brotherhood, law-abiding control, and nobility.

About the Message:

We live in a very, very, very angry, polarized, and contentious time. Dueling yard sign wars, people in each others faces, shouting on social media. An oh, a national election this week. Did I mention the political ads 24/7/365? Everywhere? How are we as Christians to conduct ourselves this week and after the results are known? What is Paul saying to us today? And what can we learn, the lessons that over 250 years of our nation's veterans teach us about citizenship and responsibility?

Confession of Faith

This is what we confess as a Body of Christ. The Bible is the inerrant Word of God. The sole authority in all matters of life and faith. We confess that Jesus Christ alone is the only name of Salvation. We confess that the Holy Spirit alone brings New Life and holiness to the Church. Guided by such, we affirm, and we as a Body of Christ stand upon the solid rock of our Lord Jesus Christ, and we will not be moved.
