Hymn Time:

"In Christ There Is No East or West"
(John Oxenham (1852-1941))

In the year 1908, Winston Churchill made the opening speech at a great missionary exhibition in London called "The Orient in London." Part of the exhibition was a pageant depicting the triumphs of the missionary cause. In charge of the pageant was a minister named Reverend Dugald Macfadyen, nephew of John Oxenham. Macfadyen persuaded his famous uncle to provide the music for the pageant; and part of the music was "In Christ There is No East or West."

This hymn which was so widely acclaimed in that day has never lost its significance; its plea for the fellowship of love has even more profound meaning in our world of today.

"In Christ there is no East or West,
In Him no South or North;
But one great Fellowship of Love
Throughout the whole wide earth."

About the Message:

Jesus, Scripture makes two things very clear about life on planet earth. There will always be conflict between people. And often that conflict will be in or about "Church" the Body of Christ, just as much as it is in the secular world at large. And if anything about this election cycle in 2024 is true. There will be lots and lots of conflict; lots and lots of anger. Throw in the usual rage intensification machines of social media and yes people are angry, shouting and not very happy. In and out of church. So, what does the very small letter from John teach us today.

Confession of Faith

This is what we confess as a Body of Christ. The Bible is the inerrant Word of God. The sole authority in all matters of life and faith. We confess that Jesus Christ alone is the only name of Salvation. We confess that the Holy Spirit alone brings New Life and holiness to the Church. Guided by such, we affirm, and we as a Body of Christ stand upon the solid rock of our Lord Jesus Christ, and we will not be moved.
